AT the Court at St. James's, the 28th of December, 1796,

PRESENT,

The KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act paſſed in the preſent Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, "An Act "to authorize His Majeſty, for a limited Time, to "make Regulations reſpecting the Trade and Com-"merce to and from the Cape of Good Hope," it is enacted, that it ſhall and may be lawful for His Majeſty, by and with the Advice of his Privy Council, by any Order or Orders, to be iſſued from Time to Time, to give ſuch Directions, and make ſuch Regulations, touching the Trade and Commerce to and from the Settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, and the Territories and Dependencies thereof, as to His Majeſty in Council ſhall appear moſt expedient and ſalutary, any of the Acts of Parliament therein referred to, or any Uſage, Law or Cuſtom, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

And whereas during the Time the ſaid Settlement, with the Territories and Dependencies thereof, were in the Poſſeſſion and under the Government of the States General of the United Provinces, or of the Honorable the General Eaſt India Company in the Netherlands, it was uſual to admit the Ships and Veſſels belonging to the Subjects of Countries in Amity with the ſaid United Provinces into the Ports of the ſaid Settlement, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof, for Repair and Refreſhment, and, with that View, to permit the ſaid Ships and Veſſels to carry on Trade with the Inhabitants of the ſaid Settlement, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof. — His Majeſty is hereby pleaſed to order, by and with the Advice of his Privy Council, in purſuance of the Powers veſted in His Majeſty by the above recited Act, and it is hereby ordered, that it ſhall be lawful, until further Order, for all Ships and Veſſels belonging to His Majeſty's Subjects, as well as for all Ships and Veſſels belonging to the Subjects of any Country or State in Amity with His Majeſty, to enter into the Ports of the ſaid Settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof, and to carry on Trade and Traffick with the Inhabitants of the ſaid Settlement, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof, and to import and export to and from the Ports of the ſaid Settlement, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof, any Goods, Wares or Merchandize whatſoever, ſubject to the following Exceptions, and ſubject alſo to ſuch Duties, Rules, Regulations and Reſtrictions as ſhall be eſtabliſhed by His Majeſty, or by the Governor of the ſaid Settlement, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof, by virtue of Authority derived from His Majeſty; and in the mean Time ſubject to ſuch Duties, Rules, Regulations and Reſtrictions as ſubſiſted and were in Force before and at the Time of the Conqueſt of the ſaid Settlement by the Arms of His Majeſty, with ſuch Alterations as have been ſince made under the Authority of the Commander in Chief of His Majeſty's Forces at the ſaid Settlement: But it is His Majeſty's Pleaſure that no Goods Wares or Merchandize, which ſhall be imported into the ſaid Settlement,

[Price Thirteen-pence Halfpenny.]

Settlement, or the Territories or Dependencies thereof, from any Part of His Majeſty's Dominions, ſhall be ſubject to any Duty.

And it is His Majeſty's Pleaſure, that no Goods, Wares or Merchandize, the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of the Countries to the Eaſtward of the Cape of Good Hope, be imported into the ſaid Settlement, or the Territories or Dependencies thereof, except by the United Company of Merchants trading to the Eaſt Indies; and that no ſuch Goods, Wares or Merchandize, be permitted to be exported from thence, except for Sea Stores only, or by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies, or by their Licence.

But it is His Majeſty's Pleaſure that nothing in this Order contained ſhall extend to prevent Ships or Veſſels employed in the Southern Whale Fiſhery from carrying on the ſame in ſuch and the ſame Manner as might have been done if this Order had not been made.

And it is alſo His Majeſty's Pleaſure, that no Arms or Artillery, Gunpowder or Ammunition, of any Sort, be allowed to be imported into the ſaid Settlement, or the Territories or Dependencies thereof, except by the ſaid United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies, or by Licence from His Majeſty.

And it is His Majeſty's further Pleaſure, that the Trade and Commerce to and from the ſaid Settlement, and the Territories and Dependencies thereof, ſhall be ſubject to ſuch of the Laws of Trade and Navigation as would have affected the ſame if this Order had not been made, except ſo far as ſuch Laws are contrary to this preſent Order.

And the Right Honorable the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury, and the Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty, are to give the neceſſary Directions herein as to them may reſpectively appertain.

Steph. Cottrell.

St. James's, January 11, 1797.

THIS Day the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common Council of the City of London, waited upon His Majeſty (being introduced by the Marquis of Saliſbury, Lord Chamberlain of His Majeſty's Houſehold) with the following Addreſs, which was read by Sir John William Roſe, the Recorder.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council aſſembled, beg Leave to approach the Throne, moſt humbly to thank your M[illegible] for your gracious Communication to both Ho[illegible] Parliament of the Meaſures adopted by your Majeſty on the recent Manifeſto of the Court of Madrid, abruptly declaratory of an unprovoked War with Great Britain.

Your Majeſty's faithful Citizens of London ſincerely lament that y[illegible] Majeſty's Endeavours to preſerve Peace with S[illegible] and to adjuſt all Matters in Diſcuſſion with that C[illegible] an amicable Nego[illegible]tiation, have been rendered [illegible]ual, and the [illegible]lamities of War thus unavoidably extended.

Nevertheleſs, relying on the Juſtice of your Majeſty's Cauſe, the Reſources of the Country, the Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Councils, and the Bravery of your Majeſty's Fleets and Armies, we doubt not that, under the Protection of Divine Providence, your Majeſty will be able to repel this unprovoked Aggreſſion, to ſubdue all your Enemies, and finally to obtain the Bleſſings of Peace, to ſecure the Dignity of your Majeſty's Crown, and to advance the Proſperity of theſe Kingdoms.

Signed, by Order of Court,

WILLIAM RIX.

To which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to return the following moſt gracious Anſwer:

I Receive with great Satisfaction this loyal Addreſs from My City of London.

I ſincerely lament the Failure of My Endeavours to preſerve Peace with Spain: But, from the Juſtice of My Cauſe, the experienced Valour of My Fleets and Armies, and the ſpirited and generous Exertions of the Nation at large, I truſt, under the Protection of the Divine Providence, that this Aggreſſion will be effectually repelled; and that the Bleſſings of Peace will be reſtored, upon Terms conſiſtent with the Honour of My Crown, and with the Security and Intereſts of My People.

They were all received very graciouſly, and had the Honour to kiſs His Majeſty's Hand.

After which His Majeſty was pleaſed to confer the Honour of Knighthood on William Herne, Eſq; Alderman.

Whitehall, January 14.

THE following Addreſs has been preſented to the King; which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, Inhabitants and Viſitors of the City of Bath, feel it our Duty, at this momentous Criſis, which has fully diſcloſed the extravagant Ambition of our Enemies, in their Deſigns to ſubvert the Liberties of Europe, and the Power and Independence of this Country in particular, and when they have audaciouſly attempted an Invaſion of the Siſter Kingdom, to renew our Profeſſions of Attachment to your Royal Perſon, and to the Conſtitution under which we have the Happineſs to live.

We humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we have Hearts to feel and Underſtandings to comprehend the paternal Care and benevolent Principles which have influenced your Majeſty's recent Endeavours to reſtore Peace to theſe Realms, and to put

put a Stop to the further Effuſion of human Blood. We ſincerely regret, as the Friends of Humanity, the Failure of your Majeſty's Efforts. We are thoroughly impreſſed with a Senſe of the Moderation and Good Faith diſplayed in your Majeſty's pacifick Overtures, and we deeply reſent the Indignity offered to the Throne, and to our national Honour, by the inſolent and abrupt Rejection of them on the Part of the Enemy. We rely, however, with the utmoſt Confidence, that the ſuperintending Goodneſs of Divine Providence will enable your Majeſty, by the Vigour and Energy of your Government, and the Unanimity and Valour of our Countrymen and Allies, to repel the Danger threatened to Europe, and that, animated by the Spirit of our Anceſtors, our Struggles, however arduous, will be crowned with Succeſs. We beg Leave to expreſs our Determination to ſupport your Majeſty, with a ſteady Zeal, in the Proſecution of the juſt and inevitable Conteſt which the Pride and Haughtineſs of our Enemies compel us to prolong. We will, readily and chearfully, ſubmit to ſuch farther Burthens as the Exigencies of the War may require, and the Legiſlature ſhall, in it's Wiſdom, think neceſſary to impoſe; and we are ſatisfied that we ſpeak the Voice of an united People, with whoſe general Sentiments and Diſpoſitions, in the various and moſt diſtant Parts of the Empire from which we are aſſembled, we have Opportunities of being well informed.

[Preſented by Lieutenant-Colonel Strode, of the Somerſet Fencible Cavalry, accompanied by the Maſter of the Rolls, one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid City.]

Copy of a Letter from Captain Barton, of His Majeſty's Ship Lapwing, to Evan Nepean, Eſq; dated in Baſſeterre Roads, December 3, 1796.

SIR,

A Packet leaving this Place To-Day for England, I embrace the Opportunity, for the Satisfaction of their Lordſhips, to acquaint them, that I anchored at St. Kitt's on the 25th Ultimo, when an Expreſs Boat had been ſent from the Iſland of Anguilla, to inform the Admiral that the Iſland was attacked by Two French Men of War and ſeveral ſmall Veſſels, containing Four Hundred Troops. I felt it my Duty (as the Expreſs Boat returned here with the Loſs of her Main-Maſt) to leave the Service I was ordered on to endeavour to relieve that Place. The Wind, being to the Northward, prevented my getting up there in Time to ſtop them from burning the Town; but I have the Pleaſure to ſay, after an Action of near Two Hours, I effectually relieved that Iſland, by taking the Ship and ſinking the Brig. The Ship proved to be Le Decius, mounting Twenty-four Six-Pounders, Two Twelve-Pound Carronades, and Two Braſs Field-Pieces, with One Hundred and Thirty-three Men of her own Complement, and Two Hundred and Three Troops, commanded by Citoyen Andrée Senis, and the Brig La Vaillante, mounting Four Twenty-four-Pounders, with Forty-five Men and Ninety Troops, commanded by Citoyen Labontique. The Particulars of the Action I have tranſmitted to Rear-Admiral Harvey, for the Information of their Lordſhips.

I am, &c.

R. BARTON.

N. B. I am informed that they were picked Troops from Victor Hughes, for the ſole Purpoſe of plundering and deſtroying the Iſland.

WHereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that about Two o'Clock on the Morning of Monday the 2d Instant, some evil-minded Person or Persons knocked at the Door of Thomas Barker, Esq; the Junior Bailiff of the Borough of East Retford, and on his opening a Chamber Window, fired a Gun at him, loaded with Bullets, which fortunately missed him: And that about the same Time some Person or Persons maliciously fired a Gun, loaded with Bullets, at the Lodging Room Window of Richard Hutchinson, Esq; one of the Senior Aldermen of the said Borough.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the daring Outrages above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Person or Persons who actually fired the Guns) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

East India House, January 11, 1797.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies do hereby give Notice,

That a General Court of the said Company will be held at their House in Leadenhall-Street, on Tuesday next, the 17th Instant, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Desire of Nine Proprietors, as expressed in the following Letter.

" To the Honourable the Court of Directors for " Affairs of the United East-India Company.

" Gentlemen,

" WE, the undersigned, being Proprietors of East " India Stock, duly qualified, thinking it " of the utmost Consequence to the Company that " the Bye-Law, which ordains that no Motion shall " be made for any Grant of Money out of the " Company's Cash without Fourteen Days publick " Notice, at the least, should be preserved inviolate, " and being advised, that the late Resolution for " granting to Government the Interest upon the " Two Millions subscribed to the publick Loan, to " the End of our Charter, is, in itself, void for " Want of such Notice, request that the Opinion " of Counsel may be taken as to the Validity of " the said Grant, and whether it can be paid from " the Company's Cash consistently with the said " Bye-Law; also whether such Grant is legal under " the Act of the 33d of George the Third, Cap. 52, " Sec. 3, by which the Whole of the Company's " Assets at Home are strictly appropriated.

" We are the more anxious to obtain this In- " formation, as the Company's standing Counsel " professed to give his Opinion with great Doubt " respecting the Bye-Law when called on at the late " General Court. If the said Grant be illegal, we " apprehend that some further Step must necessarily " be taken, and if it be legal, we shall think it ex- " pedient to propose such Alteration in the present " Bye-Law as may render it explicit, and com- " pletely protective of the Funds of the East-India " Company."

" When these Opinions shall have been obtained, " we request they may be printed for the Use of the " Proprietors; and that you will be pleased to call " a General Court (with due Notice) for the Pur " pose of taking the same into Consideration, and " also whether any and what Alterations it may be " expedient to make in the said Bye-Law; and on " other special Affairs."

We have the Honour to remain,
Gentlemen,
Your very obedient humble Servants,
Robert Mendham.
Stephen Willson.
Edward Baber.
Thomas Henchman.
Randle Jackson.
Richard Fuller.
John Halford.
Charles Fuller.
George Barclay.

The Court of Directors do also give Notice, that, agreeably to the Request of the said Letter, the Opinions of Counsel have been taken, and lie in the Secretary's Office for the Inspection of the Proprietors.

The Court of Directors do further give Notice, that a Proposition will be submitted to the said General Court respecting the recruiting the Company's Indian Army, and establishing a Depot for their being kept, trained and exercised previous to their being sent to India.

William Ramsay, Secretary.

East India House, January 11, 1797.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East-Indies, do hereby give Notice,

That the Proceedings of the General Court, respecting the Resolutions for paying the Interest of the Two Millions agreed to be lent to the Publick by the Company, having been found to be informal for Want of such previous Notice being given of the Motion for the same, as is required by a Bye-Law of the Company, a General Court of the said Company will be held at their House in Leadenhall-Street, on Friday the 27th Day of January instant, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, for the Purpose of again considering that Business, at which Court the following Motion will be made, viz.

" That this Company do pay into the Bank, for the " Use of the Publick, all such Interest as shall become " due on the Two Millions voted on Loan to Govern- " ment on the 2d of December last, from the Commence- " ment of such Interest, during the Term granted to this " Company in the exclusive Trade to the East-Indies, " or until such Periods as the Principal may be repaid, " the same to be paid during the present War from the " General Funds; but at any future Period, in the " possible Event of the Funds of the Company being at " any Time unequal to the Payment of such Interest, " after the Dividends on the Company's Stock, and the " other Charges which precede the Participation of the " Publick, then the Interest to become a Charge on " Government; it being understood, at the Expiration " of the Term of the Company's present exclusive " Trade, the territorial Possessions in India shall be- " come a Pledge of Guarantee to the Proprietors of " East India Stock, to the Extent of Eight Millions " of Capital Stock, and at the Rate of Two Hun- " dred per Cent. and this without Prejudice to the " Claims of the Company; and that the Court of " Directors be desired to make such Application to " Parliament as may be necessary to authorize the " Company to pay the said Interest as abovementioned.
